TURBULENT SCENES.

A Day of Excitement in the House of Congress.

NOTHING WAS ACCOMPLISHED.

Mr. Bland Falls to Secure a Vote on His Seigniorage Bill—Several Members Denounce Their Arrests For Absenteeism. Nothing Done in the Senate and That Body Adjourns Until Monday.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The Washington birthday session of the house was marked by the most turbulent and disorderly scenes. Mr. Bland, clinging to the idea that he could obtain a quorum for his motion to close debate on the seigniorage and nettled at his continued failure for the past week, refused to allow the house to adjourn over the national holiday.

When the house met yesterday, however, although he still declined to entertain any propositions to compromise with the opponents of the measure upon the representation of certain western Republicans that they would cease filibustering and support the measure if he would give more additional time for debate, he moved that the debate continue until Saturday. But he did not get a vote on his amended proposition.

Exciting events growing out of the wholesale arrest of members in compliance with the resolution adopted on Monday led to disorder and tumult, which, after continuing for hours, was suddenly terminated in an adjournment. Mr. Cummings precipitated it by declaring an attempt to arrest him on the floor. He characterized this session on Washington's birthday as a farce, and moved an adjournment. The appeal to patriotism, however, could not move the supporters of Mr. Bland, and his motion was voted down.

A riotous scene followed when General Sickles denounced his arrest. This culminated finally in the discovery that the warrant under which members had been arrested was faulty, in that the names of those arrested had not been included in the warrant. By this time the house was in such a tangle that Mr. Bland moved to adjourn. Despite the efforts of the Republicans to hold the Democrats in session in order to force them to find a way out of their predicament, the motion was carried.

Senate Adjourns Until Monday.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The Democratic members of the senate are much disturbed over the situation concerning the tariff bill. They used the half holiday yesterday to make a decided effort to agree upon the features of the bill so as to insure its passage. They did not make marked progress, according to all reports, and they will continue their efforts undisturbed by other official business, as the senate has adjourned until Monday.

There was but a small attendance either on the floor of the senate or in the galleries. Only about 25 senators were in their places when the senate convened at noon.

The chaplain, in the opening prayer, referred to the special character of the day.

Without transacting any important business, the senate adjourned until Monday.

SPECTACLE IN THE HEAVENS.

Strange Sights Seen by People in the Vicinity of Oil City.

OIL CITY, Feb. 23.—At 10 o'clock last night thousands of people in this city and vicinity were gazing at a marvelous spectacle in the heavens. High toward the zenith, in the east, a huge cross, white in color and indescribably brilliant, blazed in the sky; while the moon, encircled by a similar light, made a beautiful center piece. At each corner of the cross appeared to be huge balls of living fire of all the colors of the rainbow. The phenomena lasted for nearly half an hour.

The meteorological sharp silence the superstitions by saying it was caused by the peculiar condition of the atmosphere, and the presence of a thin cloud that formed a sort of lens, causing a refraction of the rays of light from the moon.

An Aurora Seen at Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 23.—A magnificent display of aurora was seen here last night, lasting fully half an hour. The brilliant rays of light waved from the horizon almost to the zenith. At one time the sky was a brilliant red. A ludicrous result of the reddish tint of the sky was a run made by the Kansas City (Kan.) fire department toward the northern part of the town, fully half a mile, to put out what they thought was a fire.

Seen All Through the West.

PORTLAND, Or., Feb. 23.—A brilliant display of aurora borealis was seen in this city last night shortly after 7 o'clock. Strenuous light formed an arc from the eastern to the western horizon and advanced upward about 45 degrees. Advised from all parts of Oregon and Washington state that the phenomenon was most brilliant. Telegraph wires were not seriously disturbed in lower altitudes, but in the mountains considerable trouble was experienced.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 23.—J. T. Smith, a farmer, who lives near White Church, Kan., has a Washington relic which he highly prizes and exhibits on rare occasions. It is a Masonic apron of satin, trimmed in gold, which Washington wore at Masonic lodge meetings. Mr. Smith is a member of Delaware lodge No. 96 A. F. and A. M. and the apron has been handed down from father to son for 100 years. It came into possession of an ancestor who lived neighbor to the father of his country.

SANDSTORM IN CALIFORNIA.

The Greatest Damage Done Was the Wrecking of a Passenger Train.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 23.—A big sandstorm raged in the valleys eastward yesterday and the effect was plainly seen from this city in the very hazy horizon. The worst effect was the wrecking of a train on the Southern California railway near San Bernardino. The train was No. 41, a local, leaving San Bernardino at 7:30.

When about 500 feet east of Rosina station, eight miles west of San Bernardino, the engine plunged into a sandbank, was derailed and turned over on its side, as was also the baggage car. The rest of the cars kept the track. No one was hurt except Engineer Barnes of San Bernardino, who was badly cut about the head, but it is thought he is not dangerously injured.

A terrible gale suddenly piled up a huge drift of sand on the track, and the air being filled with sand and dust was impenetrable by the eye as the heaviest fog, the engineer was thus prevented from seeing the obstruction in time to avert the accident.

The sand must have piled up very quickly as the overland train passed the spot only 30 minutes ahead of the local, and there were no signs of a drift then. The passengers were transferred and arrived here only an hour late.

MINES DESERTED.

The Men at the Wheeling Creek Mines Quit Work.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 23.—The miners at the Wheeling Creek mines of the Pittsburgh Wheeling Coal company, on the line of the Cleveland, Loraine and Wheeling railroad, decided to go on a strike against the terms offered by the management for day laborers. The miners accepted the rate agreed upon by the recent Columbus conference, the wages of day men being left for individual settlement.

The committee sent to the operators to settle this matter, reported that the cut in the wages of entrymen and outside labor was to be something near 30 per cent. They at once refused to accept it, and yesterday the mines were deserted. Other miners in the district have the same troubles threatening them, as no settlements have been made of the day labor question, although the miners have gone to work.

FAMINE THREATENED.

Great Destitution and Absolute Want Exist in Texas.

HOUSTON, Feb. 23.—Information comes from the Starr county section of the state to the effect that a famine is threatened here. Ninety per cent of all cattle, horses and sheep are dead; no crops of any kind have been raised or harvested during the past year; great destitution and absolute want exists.

Many are compelled to subsist on roots, prickly pears, etc., even half putrid fish that has been stripped from the carcasses of dead animals is eaten to satisfy the pangs of hunger. Many persons, especially children, have hardly sufficient clothing to cover their nakedness; resources are exhausted and it is impossible to longer assist the starving fellow creatures.

Colliery Destroyed.

ASHLAND, Pa., Feb. 23.—Fire was discovered yesterday in the Reading company's Keystone colliery at Locustdale, and within half an hour the mammoth structure was a mass of ruins. The cause of the fire is unknown. The plant was transformed into a washery about a year ago and the company had over a hundred men employed in running the culm banks which surrounded the colliery through the breaker, thus preparing it for market. These tanks contained valuable coal. The loss will reach $50,000.

Raid on an Illicit Distillery.

WHEELING, Feb. 23.—A successful raid was made upon an illicit distillery, located on top of Cheat mountain, last night, by United States deputy marshals. The distillery was running full blast with a large stock of mash on hand. Samuel Canfield and Boone Hinshreys, the owners of the still, were arrested after a desperate fight. Canfield has already served a term in the penitentiary for moonshining.

Will Strike in April.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 23.—President R. B. Frye of the railroad miners says there will be a general strike among all miners about April 15. "The men have been made desperate," he said. "They are going to fight and fight earnestly. They have no option but to strike. It will be the greatest fight which this country has ever seen."

Charged With Murder.

ASPEN, Colo., Feb. 23.—Frank Cook, a miner, is under arrest here charged with the murder of his partner, B. H. Spach, at their mine, near Ashcroft, Feb. 1. Cook reported that an unexpected explosion of a "dead shot" drove a tamping bar through Spach's body. It has since been learned that Spach was killed by a bullet.

Doings of the Whisky Trust.

PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 23.—The whisky trust, at a meeting of the executive committee held in Chicago this week, advanced prices of goods in bond 1 cent per gallon on account of speculative demand and yesterday increased the capacity of distilleries at Omaha, St. Paul and Cincinnati 8,000 bushels.

Train Jumps the Track.

NEWCASTLE, Colo., Feb. 23.—The Colorado Midland passenger train No. 6 jumped the track at the junction of Rio Grande and Midland tracks, half a mile west of Newcastle yesterday. The only person hurt was Fireman Oscar Rhodes, who had a leg broken. There were 20 passengers.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

St. Louis Visited by a Serious Conflagration.

LOSS OF QUARTER OF A MILLION.

A Seven-Story Building Entirely Destroyed—Several Firms Suffer Heavy Losses—A Falling Wall Crushes an Adjoining Building—Fortunately No One Was Injured.

St. Louis, Feb. 23.—A fire which started about 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening in the 7-story building at the corner of Locust and Twelfth streets, owned by H. H. Culver, destroyed that structure and contents, and its falling walls crushed a 3-story brick dwelling and saloon adjoining, causing a total loss of about $250,000, on which there is perhaps $200,000 of insurance.

The fire started on the fourth floor in the portion occupied by the Tyler Desk company, and spread rapidly until the whole building was a mass of flames. A hard fight was made by the firemen to confine the fire to the building and in two hours they had succeeded in getting it under control, but it was some time after that before the flames had died out, after completely destroying the interior of the building and its contents.

The Uddell Wooden and Willowware company occupied the greater portion of the seven floors. Their loss was total, and aggregated $80,000; fully insured.

The Tyler Desk company did not save anything. That concern suffered to the extent of $35,000, on which they only had an insurance of $18,000.

Thirty thousand dollars' worth of goods of a miscellaneous character that were stored in the building were also burned.

H. H. Culver, of the Wrought Iron Range company, who owned the burned building, said his loss would probably amount to $100,000. His insurance footed up to $75,000.

After the fire had got under a good headway, a portion of the south wall fell, crushing like an eggshell the 3-story brick dwelling and saloon of Henry Miller. Miller's loss was about $5,000, partially covered by insurance. Miller and a man named Mark Berne were struck by portions of the debris and seriously injured.

ATTEMPTED TO GAIN HIS LIBERTY.

A Prisoner Jumps From a Rapidly Moving Train.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Feb. 23.—A daring and almost successful attempt to gain freedom by jumping from a rapidly moving train while being taken from jail here to Varner, Ark., to stand trial for their lives, was made yesterday by one of the lynchers of David T. Nelson, the colored murderer.

The prisoners, whose names are Nancy Hawkins, Edmund Taylor, Tom Riley, Calvin Ashley, Tom Boykin, Abraham Washington and Steve Tinsley, all colored, were handcuffed in twos. When the train was nearing Varner, Hawkins, the leader of the lynchers, unlocked himself in some way from his mate and jumped from the train. Sheriff Maroney jumped after him, both falling heavily. E. R. Dyer, a deputy, stopped Hawkins with a pistol.

A saddled horse and shotgun were found near the place where Hawkins tried to escape.

Last November Nelson, with an ax, chopped off the leg of another negro named Bets and then stamped him to death. Soon after, a mob of negroes broke open the Varner jail, took Nelson out, killed him and attempted to burn his body. Hawkins confessed the crime implicating the others. Their trial is now in progress at Varner.

WORKING UNDER DIFFICULTIES.

Rescuers in the Gaylord Mine Threatened With Another Cave-In.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 23.—The rescuers in the Gaylord shaft are now working under great difficulties, another cave-in being threatened from the head of the slope. The roof over the place where the men are now at work is 20 feet high and it is almost impossible to prop it so as to insure safety. The roof may hold together for an indefinite period, or again it may fall at any moment, crushing those who are at work beneath it.

There was a slight cave-in at the head of the slope yesterday, but it did not cause much damage. Later on there was a cave-in of more serious proportions, but the mine owners will not admit it is going to stop the work of the rescuing party.

There seems to be but little hope of recovering the bodies within the next 10 days. Last Saturday it was predicted that some of the bodies would be found yesterday, but the miners are working with as much uncertainty as ever, and there is no telling when they will come upon the bodies of the unfortunate men.

Wait For the Powers.

TANQUIER, Feb. 23.—General Martinez Campos, the Spanish commander, had a long conference with the sultan's vizier on Feb. 15 and imparted to him the latest instructions which he had received from his government at Madrid, and demanded a prompt acceptance of the Spanish demands. The vizier appeared much impressed with the firmness displayed by General Campos, but informed him that the sultan would decline to make a response until he received the reply of the powers to his note.

Charged With Embezzlement.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Feb. 23.—Ex-County Auditor James Hicks was arrested yesterday charged with embezzlement. He gave bond for his appearance at the March term of court.

TO TAX GREENBACKS.

A Bill That Will Make the Dodgers Squirm.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Messrs. Warner and Hall of Missouri, and Andorser of Illinois, a subcommittee of the house committee on banking and currency, have agreed to report the bill to the full committee favorably. The bill, the author of which is Mr. Cooper, aims to subject national bank notes and treasury notes to state taxes. The bill provides that "all circulating notes of national banking associations, and all United States legal tender notes, and all other notes and certificates of the United States payable on demand and circulating as currency, shall not be exempt from taxation under the authority of any state or territory, provided that such taxation shall be expressed in the same manner and at the same rate that any such state or territory shall tax other money within its jurisdiction. Nearly all the money on deposit throughout the country, it will be said, is returned as greenbacks, and thus escapes taxation. If none of the forms of money are exempt it will be impossible to use any of them as a cloak for hiding the existence of funds.

THE CORBETT-JACKSON FIGHT.

A Place Found Where It Can Take Place Without Legal Interference.

TORONTO, O., Feb. 23.—Parson Davies, manager for Peter Jackson, yesterday received the following dispatch from Mount Clemens, Mich.:

Things are shaping satisfactorily. Eminent council say the law can not interfere in a contest brought off at Strawberry island, which is three miles from this city, and has been made by the action of water within three years. We guarantee a purse of $45,000 and training expenses.

E. R. AGNEW, Chairman Committee of Arrangements. "Parson" Davies said in regard to the matter that it would suit him, only he would insist upon a deposit of $10,000 from the club as a guarantee that they would be able to pull the fight off. Davies will be in New York Sunday where he will meet Brady, Corbett's manager, and talk the matter over.

IRON HALL REPORT.

It Is Made to Judge Winters by Receiver Bailey.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 23.—Receiver Bailey of the Iron Hall yesterday filed with Judge Winters his report of the claims on warrants issued for different expenses. The claims are: Final benefits, $815; sick benefits, $670; matured certificates, $7,298; sick benefits (claims prior to receivership) $5,675.

The receiver also reported the condition of the death fund in the "life division" of the order. His books show $12,392 in the fund, of which all except $5,536 was in the Mutual bank of Philadelphia and the New Jersey Trust company of Camden. The receiver says that he has been informed that the Mutual bank will pay about 50 per cent.

Judge Winters has fixed Saturday as the day for hearing the petitions with reference to the life division.

Swindler Locked Up.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Feb. 23.—Fred Brecht, who swindled the Prudential insurance company while acting as their agent at this place, is in jail here. He obtained about $1,500 by means of bogus death certificates and fled from the city, when an inspector of the company began an investigation of his agency. He was found at Monon, Ind., working in the smelting works, under an assumed name.

Rioters Sentenced.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 23.—The Mansfield coal region rioters were sentenced by Judge Ewing. Of the 35 foreigners convicted, seven were sentenced to the penitentiary for terms ranging from 15 months to two years and six months, and 28 were sent to the workhouse for terms running from two months to one year.

Struck a Vein of Coal.

LITCHFIELD, Ill., Feb. 23.—Prospectors boring for coal in the north part of the city have been rewarded by passing through 7 feet 2 inches, and are still in coal. The vein is probably eight feet thick. A shaft will be sunk at once. Citizens celebrated the event last night at the city park.

The Poor Lose a Friend.

GALLIPOLIS, O., Feb. 23.—Mrs. Adam Uhrig of this city, who had won the respect of this community by her many benevolent and charitable deeds, dropped dead at her residence. Her trouble was the cause. The poor people of this city have lost their best friend.

AFFAIRS IN BRAZIL.

Interview With a Man Direct From Rio Janeiro.

UNITED STATES CONSUL TOWNES.

He Reaches New York on the Steamship Capua—Advises From the Seat of War Through Buenos Ayres—Nothing of a Starting Nature Has Occurred During the Past Forty-Eight Hours.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—William T. Townes, United States consul general at Rio Janeiro, arrived here yesterday on the steamship Capua. He said that American prestige in Brazil was damaged considerably by reports in newspapers of the United States criticizing and condemning the conduct of the Brazilian government. These reports were evidently based on information furnished by enemies of the government.

As all the American newspapers are received in Rio, the articles about Brazil are eagerly read. Those unfriendly to the government are caught up by those opposed to the growing interests of the United States in Brazil, and made use of to prejudice the government and the Brazilian people against us.

Speaking of the candidates for the presidency of Brazil at the coming election, Mr. Townes said: Brudente Moraes of Sao Paulo is thought highly of by the people. He is an able statesman, prudent, wise and would make a good president.

The other candidate, Alfonso Penna, is governor of the state of Minas Geras, one of the ablest jurists and statesmen in the country. When Saldanha Da Gama deserted the government and joined Admiral Mello, the rebel leader, Penna wrote a paper scoring the conduct of Da Gama.

The paper excited great interest all over the country for the manner in which it handled the subject. It is pointed to as one of the brightest pieces of statesmanship in the history of the country.

Mr. Townes said the result of the election would not probably be known for two months after it took place. He did not think the revolution would last so long, as the resources to carry it on would be exhausted.

The usual fighting, he said, occurred in the harbor of Rio daily. Shots fell in the city and sometimes killed people. These shots were mostly from Gatling and Nordenfheldt guns. They sometimes were sent up into the heart of the city, and striking the tops of buildings, fell into the streets.

Mr. Townes said there was no cause for alarm about yellow fever in Rio. It is always there to a certain extent. This summer it is not much worse than usual. The water in the bay is somewhat contaminated, and it would be better for the warships to anchor outside. The reason the water is bad is that Rio is shut off from the sea by a high mountain, which prevents the sea breezes usually enjoyed at seaports. There are no currents in the water of the harbor, and the only changes are those of the tides. Refuse, offal and decaying matter and sewerage broils under the tropical sun and breeds fever germs.

In regard to the reports that United States Minister Thompson remains outside the city at Petropolis, to the neglect of American interests, Mr. Townes said it was false and was the work of enemies of the United States minister. Mr. Thompson kept his family at Petropolis, but he himself came to Rio Janeiro every day and attended to all the business connected with the American legation.

It was just the same as a New York business man living in one of the suburbs and coming in on the train every morning. Mr. Townes said American interests were not suffering in Rio. Shipping, of course, experienced some delay in discharging and loading.

The consul said he would go to his home at Danville, Va., tomorrow and in a short time would return to Rio with his wife and family.

AGAINST WAR AND PESTILENCE.

Brazilians Fast and Paying for a Termination of Their Troubles.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—A World special from Rio Janeiro says:

The archbishop of Rio Janeiro has directed the observance of eight days as a season of fasting and prayer for the termination of the revolution in Brazil and for the cessation of the yellow fever epidemic.

President Peixoto sent an aide-de-camp, escorted by a company of cavalry, to the American minister, Thomas L. Thompson, to convey through him to all Americans his compliments upon the occasion of the anniversary of the birth of George Washington.

As Reported From Buenos Ayres.

BUENOS AYRES, Feb. 23.—The minister of finance has authorized the Caisse conversion to use the Banca Corrientes for issuing a false balance. The minister of finance withdraws from the Banca Corrientes the benefit of the law of guarantees.

President Peixoto's torpedo boats are awaiting a steamer to tow them from Pernambuco southward.

Advices from Pernambuco state that Admiral Connelley has embarked from that port for Manaus on an important mission in behalf of President Peixoto.

Resisted Arrest and Was Shot Dead.

Fair weather; west winds.

Four thousand citizens of Massachusetts petitioned the Senate this week to pass the Wilson bill. If all the people who want the new tariff act passed would follow suit, the Senate would be overwhelmed with petitions.

The Cincinnati Times Star says Colonel Wenden O'Neal of Covington "is a sure enough candidate for Governor of Kentucky." The Colonel has been over the ground before and knows exactly how the land lays. He says the Republican nominee will get there this time. According to Republican editors and stump speakers nominees in Kentucky have been "getting there" for years—just before election—but the offices are still about all filled with good Democrats.

Dows at Knoxville one day this week, a lot of coal operators met to "memorialize the Senate against the free coal clause of the Wilson bill." C. M. Woodbury, receiver of the Mingo mines at Middlesborough, made the first speech and surprised the meeting with a strong argument in favor of free coal, and that the coal interests of the South would not be affected by the passage of the Wilson bill. If the facts were known it would be found that the railroads are at the bottom of the opposition to free coal.

The Dover correspondent of the Cincinnati Post "wires" his paper that "the father of Henry Hodge is wild with grief because of his inability to learn of the whereabouts of his young son, who left his home in Berlin, a little town fifteen miles southwest of here, about two weeks ago."

In the first place the young man disappeared over a month ago. In the second place, while Mr. Hodge is very anxious to find his son, yet he didn't show any evidences of being at all "wild with grief" on his recent visit to Maysville.

It is gratifying to learn that some of the sensational newspaper correspondents are being called to time. The Transcript says: "The Lexington Reporters' Club held a special meeting in their rooms Tuesday afternoon to investigate certain reports sent out by D. Elliott Kelly to the Cincinnati Enquirer in regard to the recent trouble in newspaper and official circles. The reports in question were denounced as untrue and the club made some additional amendments to its constitution regarding sensational writing and false reports, making the penalty for such offense punishable by expulsion."

Another one of these sensational fellows received much rougher treatment out at Bessemer, Mich., a few days ago. He sent out reports of a miners' riot at Bessemer, and had the citizens fleeing, (in his mind), to Ironwood for protection. The reports were false, the affair being only a small disturbance caused by a drunken woman. The correspondent lived at Ironwood, and it was only after he sent the special he went to Bessemer to investigate. As soon as the people learned of his presence they ordered him out of town. A crowd came across him near the depot and attempted to mob him. Several shots were exchanged, the correspondent receiving a bullet wound in the leg.

There's a fellow down at Valley View, Ky., and another at Barboursville who have been keeping the wires hot of late with their sensationalism.

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

A PLEASANT ANNIVERSARY.

Stanislaus Mitchell, Well and Favorably Known Here, Celebrates His Seventy-Fifth Birthday.

Mr. Stanislaus Mitchell and family are remembered by many friends in Maysville and Mason County. They are now living in St. Louis, and a friend of the BULLETIN writes that Mr. Mitchell and his good wife were much surprised on Sunday, Feb. 18th, at their residence to have his sisters and brother and some intimate acquaintances to come in on them to celebrate his seventy-fifth birthday. Though it was a surprise, Miss Lizzie, their daughter, was quite equal to the occasion. She improvised a splendid dinner and it was a most pleasant reunion.

Mr. Mitchell was born in Ripley, but was raised and lived many years in Mason County where he is known by nearly all our older citizens. He moved to his present residence, No. 6,926 Mitchell avenue, St. Louis, about twenty-four years ago.

From then until now marks a period of phenomenal growth of that great city and the western country. Mr. Mitchell selected a place in St. Louis County, seven miles from the court house. He had to clear the forest to give room for his present home, and on moon-light nights it was not an uncommon sight to see a fox leaving the chicken roost with a hen. The city has more than doubled in acreage and population. He is now surrounded by streets and miles of sidewalks, and the whole country is dotted with fine residences.

Steele Mackaye's Great Play.

Steele Mackaye's "Paul Kaurar," which will be the attraction at Washington Opera House Saturday evening is pronounced by critics the masterpiece of that gifted writer. It is a strong, picturesque and thrilling drama with the closing scenes of the French revolution for its foundation. The story runs that Paul Kaurar, a peasant, and Diane de Beaumont, a daughter of the Duke, fall in love and are secretly married, which is distasteful to the Duke. The Duke is compelled to leave France, and after a severe struggle the daughter decided to follow her father. Marquis de Vaux, alias Gonrac, a public accuser, who also loves Diane, induces Paul, who is one of the leaders of the republic, to sign a blank warrant of arrest which he fills out with the Duke's name, upon which he is arrested and condemned to the guillotine. In a strong scene in the last act, when the mob are becoming very riotous, Kaurar clears the way and shows his honor to be unstained and is united to his wife. Tickets at Nelson's.

The Revival Not Closed.

We tried to close the revival at Michell Chapel but it would not close. Last night the house was packed and great interest shown. There were seven conversions and four additions. Prof. Fogg went home this morning and will be back Monday morning. We will continue the meeting, beginning Monday night. Let us pray much. God has done wondrous things but this is just a beginning of what he will do if we will trust in him. To God be all the glory.

River News.

Rising slowly at this point.

Over 5,000,000 bushels of coal were started from Pittsburg this week.

The steamer Sunshine passed down yesterday at noon. It is reported that the White Collar Line has bought her.

The New South on her Mardi Gras trip to New Orleans had thirteen wedding parties. And there was no bad luck connected with the trip, either.

Ashland News: "Pilots Will Agnew, of the White Collar line packet Sherley, and Pilot Alex Suiter, of the Bay Line steamer Chevalier, have both been suspended by the U. S. Marine Inspectors for a period of 15 days, as a result of the little collision had by those steamers at the Ironton wharf some weeks ago, in which the Chevalier came out badly disfigured. Bad blood had existed between the boat's crews for some time past on account of the rivalry of the different lines, and the investigation developed the fact that neither apparently cared much about avoiding the hitch."

Captain Robert Taylor's new boat, Enos Taylor, is at Portsmouth receiving her machinery. The Tribune says: "She will be placed in the Augusta, Higginsport and Maysville trade and will make two trips daily. This trade now has two boats, the Silver Wave and M. P. Wells, engaged in it. Both are owned by Captain Edgington, and when the Enos Taylor with her chiming whistle steams down the river, there will be a merry time between the rival boats. Captain Taylor is going in to win, and the prospects are that patrons of the river will be treated to a system of cheaper transit than they have known before."

The finest welt and hand-turned shoes in women's wear are a great attraction at Barkley's just now.

Mr. John Jones has been appointed postmaster at Portsmouth. He is the father of Mrs. A. F. Thomas, of this city, and is one of Portsmouth's best citizens and sterling Democrats. The Tribune says: "He is beaming with joy over the news of his appointment, and is receiving the congratulations of his friends. Mr. Jones was as much surprised as any one, and while he said he knew it was bound to come he was not expecting it so soon."

THE LATE JUDGE IRELAND.

Deceased Was a Native of Mason County and Began the Practice of Law in This City.

Brief mention was made yesterday of the death of Judge William C. Ireland at his home in Ashland. He was born in Mason County in 1823, and was for years a resident of Maysville, where he early began the practice of law.

In 1848 he was married to Miss Pamela Robb, of Vanceburg, and later removed to Greenup County. He represented that county in the State Legislature for several terms before the war, and was Clerk of the State Senate in 1863 and 1864. In 1870 he was tendered the Congressional nomination from this district, having removed to Ashland in 1869, but declined, and was, in 1874, elected to the Circuit Judgeship of that district.

He served two terms in this capacity, and, owing to failing health, retired from active life in 1890. Paralysis soon followed, and for the past three years he had been a helpless invalid. He leaves a wife and three children.

Deceased was a member of the Filson Club, of Louisville, and was a senior Trustee of the State University at Lexington.

His funeral occurred this morning at Ashland, under the auspices of Maysville Commandery No 10, K. T.

Washington's Birthday.

The G. A. R. hall in the Cox Building was crowded last night, the occasion being the celebration of Washington's Birthday by Jos. Heiser Post. The programme consisted of prayer, music and speeches.

The address of the evening was delivered by Judge Phister. It was a scholarly address, teeming with patriotic sentiments and eloquently delivered.

The music was under the supervision of Messrs Robert Hoeflich, Hal C. Curran and Samuel Simon and was an enjoyable feature of the evening's programme.

BLAND-DYE.

The Bulletin's Desha Valley Representative Tells of a Pretty Wedding at Sardis.

One of the most fashionable and pretty church weddings of the season was that of Miss Lily Mae Dye and Mr. William H. Bland, which took place Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the M. E. Church, South, in Sardis. Rev. Cyrus Riffe performed the ceremony which united the contracting parties.

The bright and winsome bride is the only daughter of Mr. Thomas Dye. She wore a dress of much beauty, marked especially by its simplicity and becoming neatness. It was made of white broadcloth, with V neck, long sleeves; no veil.

The groom is the youngest son of the late Charles Bland, bears the name of an industrious farmer, is active, sprightly and energetic, an obliging brother, and will make a devoted husband, me judice.

As the bridal pair entered the church Mrs. Grigsby, the organist, played Mendelssohn's wedding march in artistic style, accompanied by violin and cornet. The nshers were Messrs. James Pyles, Logan Marshall, Gus Grigsby, Sam Vaughn, all gallant young bachelors, who formed a semi-circle of "barons bold" around the couple at the altar.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bland, accompanied by the ushers, took carriage and were driven to "The Highlands," the home of the groom, where an elegant reception was given and supper served, in courses, in the well known excellence of the Bland home cuisine. The table decorations were beautiful and tastefully arranged. The guests were in sufficient numbers to be very happy and well entertained. Misses Newell and Bland rendered selections with exquisite touch on piano and organ. Miss Nancy Bland's "Two Little Girls in Blue" was encored.

The bride and groom were the recipients of numerous useful and ornamental presents.

The company departed at a late hour, invoking all spiritual benediction and grace, all worldly prosperity, to bride and groom, and that the sweetest of flowers may ever bloom in their journey through life, was the wish of many admiring friends, cordially seconded by the representative of the BULLETIN.

Among the guests were Misses Annie Newell and Elizabeth Bland, R. C. Bland and wife, Chester Bland and wife, (of Maysville), John C. Kirk and wife, J. H. Grigsby, Jr., and wife, Thomas Dye and wife.

The musical combination was a success, Prof. L. D. Wheeler, violinist, Jos. B. Grigsby, cornetist, and Mrs. J. H. Grigsby, Jr., organist. The following voluntaries were rendered while the guests were assembling: "When Shall We Meet Again?" "Sweet Love," Gavotte, "Golden Dreams of Youth."

Hear Bill Nye To-night.

St. Louis Republic: "As a humorous writer his wide reputation has been maintained for many years, not only by the apparently inexhaustible supply of sketches that have kept his name before the public, but by the originality of his work, his quaint conceits and unexpected turns of expression. And there is probably no one who could surpass Nye himself in preserving in their recital the humor of these sketches. His appearance and demeanor are most helpful in conveying the effect produced by a man of melancholy mien, who in the gravest manner makes side-splitting remarks, and the few gestures he permits himself are inimitable."

The entertainment at the opera house to-night by Colonel Edgar William Nye and Mr. William Hawley Smith promises to be one of the richest treats of the season. The box sheet, at Nelson's, points to a large attendance.

SOME fool Bracken County farmer tried to beat a tobacco firm of Augusta. He sold them his crop, and they found tied beneath the band of each hand of the fine leaf a lot of yellow clay, which had been worked into a dough and tried in with the stems of tobacco. Small green suckers had also been mixed with the clay.

COLONEL GEO. W. CONNER, one of Bath County's most talented men, was found dead in his room at Owingsville. He was Lieutenant-Colonel of the Fifth Kentucky Regiment of the Confederate army, and was connected with one of the largest families in Eastern Kentucky. He was a bachelor, sixty-four years of age at the time of his death.

THE druggists of Louisville denounce the bill in the Kentucky Senate affecting them as unjust and ruinous to their business. A committee has been appointed to go to Frankfort to work against the measure, which has already passed the House. The objectionable measure aims to give graduates of the medical schools the right to act as pharmacists.

THE Pennsylvania Railroad has adopted as its standard a rail weighing eighty pounds to the yard and 60 feet long instead of 30 feet long, as has been used heretofore. The ends of the rails, instead of being cut off square and joined face to face, are put together with miter joints. It is said that rails laid in this way wear longer and that much of the danger of passing over curves is done away with.

THE LAW-MAKERS.

Mr. Mathews' "Black Knot" Bill Passes—Other News of General Interest.

In the Legislature Wednesday, the House concurred in the bill regulating the property rights of husband and wife. The bill to protect the Louisville merchants by imposing a tax on peddlers was passed unanimously.

The Senate receded from its amendment to the bill for the protection of game and the bill is now ready for the Governor.

Mr. Weissinger proposed a joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of State to purchase 1,500 copies of the Barbour and Carroll statutes for the use of the Assembly and officers of the Commonwealth. The resolution was accompanied by a bill which declares that the statutes are the authorized law of the State.

The Matthews bill, providing for the extermination of what is known as "black knot" in fruit trees, was passed. At the afternoon session a motion was made to take up the House bill abolishing the State Board of Equalization, and after some filibustering the motion prevailed, but no vote was reached.

The Committee on Internal Improvement has reported adversely Mr. Searcy's bill to regulate and control turnpike, gravel and plank roads, and the House refused to advance the bill to a second reading.

A second reading was refused Mr. Matthews' bill which provided that persons who had been summoned as grand or petit jurors should be paid $2 a day whether used as jurors or not.

The Senate has passed a bill for the protection of fish. A fine of from $50 to $100 is provided to prevent the destruction of fishes by seine, dynamite, explosives, net traps, medicated bait, poisonous substance and the like. With the exception of trot-lines, the privileged manner of catching fish is with hand pole and line. The bill is ready for the House, where it is not likely to meet with serious opposition.

A BIG PENSION.

Col. Chas. A. Marshall Receives About $5,000 Arrears, and Will Get $30 a Month

Colonel Charles A. Marshall, of this county, has been granted a pension, the arrears of which reach about $5,000.

He is allowed pension at the rate of $7.50 per month from May 2nd, 1862, to July 15th, 1872, and at the rate of $15 per month from July 15th, 1872, to November 30, 1892; from November 30th, 1892, at the rate of $30 per month for life.

Captain M. C. Hutchins procured this pension as Colonel Marshall's attorney. Mr. Marshall organized the Sixteenth Kentucky Infantry in 1861 and was its first Colonel. He commanded it at the battle of Ivy Mountain in November, 1861, and resigned in May, 1862, on account of illness from rheumatism. The Colonel is now about eighty-five years of age.

The arrears are the largest sum ever drawn by anyone in Mason County.

ED. T. GROSS, Democratic nominee for Sheriff of Fayette County, and Miss Clara Kerr, of Muir, were married this week. The bride is a daughter of Captain James H. Kerr, one of Fayette's wealthiest farmers.

"A more powerful, heart-stirring sermon has not been heard for years," is what the Dover News says of Rev. R. G. Patrick's discourse at the re-dedication of the Baptist Church at Minerva. A large crowd was in attendance.

AN AMPHIBIOUS KANAKA.

Some Instances of His Remarkable Feats of Diving and Swimming.

Among the natives who will go to the Midwinter fair at San Francisco is James Apu, now in Honolulu from Kauai, who is the champion diver and surf rider of that island. Many stories of the remarkable feats performed by this man in the water are related.

It is said that he is so expert at diving that he can stay under water for four minutes at a time and meanwhile catch fish with a spear and net which he uses while on his submarine visit. He has no fear of sharks and will take to the water at any time and under any circumstances. While on board one of the island steamers a little while ago off Diamond head Apu got fish hungry and jumped overboard, caught some and returned to the steamer in a few minutes.

In 1884, while at Molokai in a small schooner with three or four other natives, after discussing several bottles of gin the others left Apu on shore for a joke and sailed for Maui. Apu threw off his clothes, tied them in a bundle on his head and swam after the schooner, which he soon caught up with. The others would not let him in, so he struck out for himself and swam the entire distance, reaching the Maui shore some time before the others. The distance is over eight miles and the current swift and dangerous.

Apu will give surf riding exhibitions on his arrival at San Francisco, and the board which he will use has been made to order of redwood, which Apu says is preferable to koa, being so much lighter. It will be painted black, that color being most obnoxious to sharks. This surf board is 12 feet long, and when performing Apu stands erect on it and goes through a variety of wonderful feats in balancing, etc.—Hawaiian Star.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—A special to The World from Guatemala says: Some important personages in Honduras not connected with either side in the present trouble are making an organized effort to bring about peace.

Two Vessels Fast in an Ice Field.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Feb. 23.—The steamer Held of the Graham and Morton line is being carried outward in an ice field in which she has been stuck for two days. The Chicora started to her assistance but is also held fast and has only 18 tons of coal aboard. The crew of the Held has only a limited supply of provisions aboard.

EXPLOSION IN A COAL MINE.

Six People Killed, Three Injured and Two Missing.

RATON, N. M., Feb. 23.—A terrific explosion occurred yesterday in the coal mines at Blossburg, three miles southwest of here, and soon a band of rescuers were at work to investigate the amount of damage, and if possible, give succor to those within. Six bodies have been recovered, and it is believed that two Italians, who are missing, are in the mine and probably dead.

The killed are: Joseph Fotheringill, fire inspector, aged 26.

Albert Snyder, miner, aged 30.

Ed Hogan, miner, aged 21.

Richard Thornton, miner, aged 58.

Robert Benman, miner, aged 40.

Samuel Wells, aged 18.

The following are injured by being burned or bruised and inhaling fire-damp: William Graham, pit boss.

Harry Wells, miner.

August Heingast, miner.

From the best information obtainable, it is probable the explosion was caused by gas in an entry being ignited by a miner's light. It is reported that Joseph Fotheringill, the fire inspector, had, but a few minutes before the explosion, notified William Graham, the pit boss, that this entry, which is one and one fourth miles from the opening of the mine, was dangerous on account of being filled with gas. Whether the pit boss forgot to notify the miners or they went into the entry without his seeing them is not known.

A coroner's jury has been empanelled and is taking evidence. Luckily only a few were in the mine on account of it being a holiday. For it is believed that over 100 would have perished. The Blossburg coal mines have been operated the past 13 years by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe company, and are the largest in the territory.
